From Buddy,

Hey Shooters!

Where does the time go??

Summer is just about over and fall and winter aren't too far behind. What does that mean? Hunting season!!

We have plenty of options from shotguns, to rifles, to handguns for any of your hunting needs. We have a bunch of scoped rifles all bore sighted and ready to travel to your stand or wherever your needs take you.

Stop by the shop and we can get you outfitted in style.

Wanted to remind y'all that we have full time, on site Gunsmithing, engraving, and Cerakote. Come in and check them out.

Have you heard the news? We now have Renaissance Custom Shop to make any of your dreams come true. From mild to wild we can get you set up with the 1911 of your dreams, that cool AR you always wanted, or whatever you have been thinking about.

Remember, Classes, classes, classes. . .

We have scheduled classes as well as "instant classes" we call Private Sessions where you can stop in and get a one hour or half hour session to work on whatever needs work. You are the boss of your session. Get sharp or tune up whatever you need when you are available. Pretty cool.

Come by the shop and check out all the cool stuff.

"It's always T-shirt weather at RenArms!"

Buddy.

Happening in October!

Training

Fall is a great time to get back into training.

The crazy summer schedule is over, the school schedule is back in effect, and it will be getting darker sooner. You will notice that we are offering fewer classes this fall, this is to make room for more private lessons and small group lessons. We have seen a trend that folks like to take smaller classes with folks they know, and we have listened! Email the link below to schedule your own custom private class.

You will also see the Women only classes coming back, to include some low light classes and some more advanced classes as well.

Focused training for faster results!
